ATTORNEY-AT-LAW
LYCEUM THEATRE BUILDING
MEMPHIS, TENN.

April 19th, 1917.

My darling Frances:-

No mail from you today, but I believe its delayed & will probably get it to-morrow.

The sale was held to-day, and it only brought $3030.00, & together with $700 which was collected, brings it up to $3730.00, upon which is based my fee. I am so disappointed, that I don't ~~feel~~ care what becomes of the whole thing. I'll probably know what my fee will be on Saturday. Then I'll be able to figure out if I can come home or not. If there is the least possible chance, I'll come.

Sooto, mine, I'm tired. I worked pretty hard to-day, & as it is so hot, I can't do a thing, so shall close with all my love to my darling sweetheart.

Lovingly,

Joe

Forgive this short letter.
